Postseason Definitions-

1. Championships - Each sport season will conclude with a final event - State Championships. Some sports have a 1 or 2 date Championship while others have a playoff period prior to a Championship.
2. Playoff Period - The two week period of time preceding the Championships will be considered "playoffs".
3. Playoff Dates - Within the playoff period, each classification/division will compete on a 3-6 dates, depending on how teams are competing. After opt-outs have been established, the playoff dates and brackets will be posted on the NCISAA website. See BRACKETS tab for sport related bracket layout.

EXAMPLE:

 - Week 1 - Playoffs may be played on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday OR Tuesday and Friday.
 - Week 2 - Playoffs may be played on Tuesday, Friday and/or Saturday.
4. Each round will be determined after the opt out date and posted on the BRACKETS page on the NCISAA website.
 - a. Opt Out Date- Third Friday in January.
 - b. Championship Date-

Boys Basketball (1A, 2A, 3A, 4A)	Finals will be on the fourth Saturday of February.

Seeding-

1. Meeting Date: Saturday/Sunday - February 14-15, 2020.
2. Meeting Date: TBA

3. For state playoff seeding purposes, all conference games/matches must be completed prior to the seeding meetings.
4. All schools are eligible to participate in the playoffs. If a school chooses to opt out, they must notify the NCISAA office by the third Friday in January.
5. Each NCISAA conference with four or more participating schools in a specific classification will receive an automatic bid.
6. The remaining tournament teams will be selected at large by the seeding committee - who will also seed the tournament.
7. In all playoff games, the higher seed will be the home team.
8. See Postseason Rules & Regulations section of the NCISAA Handbook for complete details of the playoff seeding process.

Championship Site- TBA

Sport Rules-

Unless otherwise specified, National High School Federation rules will apply.

Mercy Rule-

Once the score reaches a 40 point differential at halftime or thereafter, the game will resort to a running clock which will remain running throughout the duration of the game including administration of free throws or all other dead ball situations except timeouts called by the coach.

Officials-

1. For playoff rounds, the host site is responsible for securing officials.
2. For state championships at the higher seed, host schools will work with the NCISAA State Office in securing officials.
3. When the championship is being played at a neutral site, host schools will work with the NCISAA State Office in securing officials.
 - a. Basketball officiating crews will be asked to officiate 2 games back to back in order to preserve continuity in a given classification for boys' and girls' games.
 - b. Three-man officiating crews will be used for state tournaments in all three divisions.
 - c. All preliminary games to the finals will have officiating crews work two games.
 - d. A three man crew will be used for semi- finals and finals.
 - e. The finals will have 2 three-man crews - one for the boys' final and one for the girls' final.

Medical Coverage-

A North Carolina State Licensed Athletic Trainer or First Responder is required for all NCISAA playoff contests.

Reporting Playoff Scores-

The host school administrator is responsible for reporting scores to the NCISAA State Office and posting results in MaxPreps immediately after the conclusion of the contest.

Uniforms-

1. The higher seeded team will wear white jerseys.
2. The higher seed will be the home team throughout the tournament.

Scorebook-

1. Each team is required to have someone (preferably an adult) keeping their scorebook during each game.
2. The designated home team is the official book.

- For Championship Saturday, there will be a neutral adult keeping the official scorebook at the table in addition to the team's book.

Practice-

During the days of the tournament no team may practice in the gym where the tournament is to be played.

Warm Up-

Games will start at the published time-no earlier. However, if a game runs into the next game's scheduled start time, the teams involved in the game will have a maximum of 12 minutes to warm up. By mutual agreement between the coaches involved, the warm up time may be shortened.

Complimentary Tickets-

- Players, coaches, and team managers listed on the official rosters will be issued a Participant Pass (two-day band) to be used for the entire weekend.
- These are not to be given to parents or fans.

Half-Time Performances-

No team may have half time entertainment by cheerleaders, pom-pom girls, etc. at any state tournament.

Video Recording-

- See NCISAA Media Policy in the Handbook (Regular Season/Section 4).
- No video tape or other filming equipment may be used by a team representative unless that team is playing in the game being recorded.
- Any NCISAA school found in violation of this rule will be fined $500.
